After running the model, the segmentation results are as follows :

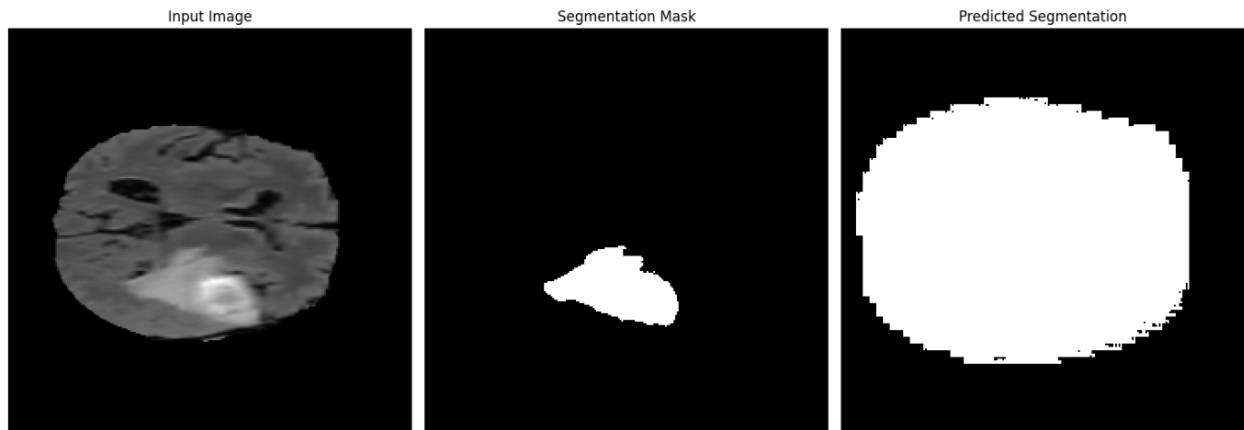

-The original MRI scan (left)

- The ground truth tumor mask (middle)

- The predicted segmentation (right)

This is a single slice from a 3D MRI volume used to visually compare the model's performance.